

Precipitation Monitoring Program

The Waseca SWCD has been participating in a statewide precipitation monitoring program since 1978. Rain gauges are provided to volunteers who submit monthly precipitation to the SWCD. The data is sent to the State Climatologist and is used to study and document precipitation and weather patterns for the state.

Visit the MNGAGE Website to review the latest precipitation and climate summaries.

<http://climate.umn.edu/hidensityedit/hidenweb.htm>